THE STAFF

All of our staff are now on the ground, Dr. Albright having reached Jerusalem December 30th. The members of the staff have been engaged in establishing the necessary relationships in Jerusalem and carrying out negotiations with the authorities, who have uniformly shown themselves most sympathetic. Of the staff of the British School, Mr. Mackay is on hand; Director Garstang is expected to arrive about Easter. Dr. Garstang has already drawn up a very elaborate scheme for the proper recording of all the antiquities of Palestine and Syria. One student has applied for work in Arabic and another for Assyrian, Dr. Worrell has begun a study of some of the tombs about Jerusalem, and Dr. Clay is collaborating in some work with Père Dhorme of the Dominican School.

THE NEW HOME OF THE ALLIED SCHOOLS

PLAN OF THE SECOND STORY OF THE LORD BUTE HOUSE

After a good deal of delay and uncertainty a home has been secured for the Joint British and American Schools. This is the Lord Bute House, lying just within the Jaffa Gate. The first and second stories will be at
